I complained to my mailman that the package I received was damp!

He said it must have come postage dew!

One day at school, the lad who sat next to me swallowed his calculator. Everyone called him a weirdo! I stood up for him... I said, "It's what's inside him that counts!"

I'm breeding race deer to make a fast buck and some quick doe!

I accidently rubbed catsup in my eye. Now I have Heinzsight!

2024 USBCs Kibitzing - There will be delayed kibitzing for all of the 2024 USBCs on LoveBridge

You can follow the USBC on the <https://vugraph.lovebridge.com/> website. If you get to the voice commentary and there is no sound, you need to "unmute." When you first get to the page, there is a small icon of a speaker in the middle of your screen with an x on it. Click there to unmute. If you miss that icon, move your cursor to the bottom left of the screen and you should see a something like this:

Click on the speaker to unmute.

Vugraph is delayed for 30 minutes or until all tables have completed play on a board, whichever is later.

Kibitzing Schedule (EDT)

For all KO days of the 2024 USBCs, kibitzing times will be :

Segment 1: 11:30 am EDT; Segment 2: 1:45 pm EDT

BREAK

Segment 3: 5:00 pm EDT; Segment 4: 7:15 pm EDT

For Round Robin days, each kibitzing segment will start 30 minutes after play starts. No voice for RR's.

To listen to commentary, search for the TV icon! It will send you to the page where you can choose from the available live commentators. If it doesn't do anything, no one is commenting.

Deep Involvement: Choose the "Match view" at the starting page of your event. Your screen will be divided into 4 small screens – 2 of them showing the 2 tables of the match you choose, the other 2 having the scoresheet for your match and the current scores of the other matches. In the 2x2 view you can personalize the content in all your windows. (The 2x2 view is not available on mobiles.)

Think together!

When watching a table, click on a name and choose "Kibitz". Instead of seeing all 4 hands, you will see what the player sees, and you can decide what you would do.

More Information:

Be well informed and tell your friends: while following the play, you can click many items. The image of the sticker with the number of the board (upper right) takes you to the results of the board, in the bottom right corner, the arrow takes you to the scoresheet, the DDS shows the double dummy analyses, beside that there is a button for the other table of the same match, at the top left corner you can see the bidding with alerts and the explanations (mouse over), the tricks already played, and the double dummy analysis for the available number of tricks with the par score.

Navigation icons:

While surfing here and there in the vugraph, or amongst the archive sessions, there are icons to help you. You can always go back to the main page with the "house" or to the standings with the "scores". If you cannot see the icons, move your mouse, or touch your screen and they pop up immediately. There is a built-in back button because the back button of your browser will always take you to the starting page. If this is not what you wanted, push next in your browser and you can continue where you were.

Replay:

After the event you can find every board from every table easily. While replaying the hands, the only surprise can be the way "next board" button works. If you have arrived from a scoresheet, it navigates through the scoresheet. If you have arrived from a screen where the results were shown for a given board, the same buttons move you through the list.

Back at the VuGraph
Loving it all
What's the next play?
What's the next call?

Waiting to see,
The tension is strong.
Will they lead from a short suit
Or one that is long?

2024 USBCs Hospitality

We are returning to our pre-pandemic hospitality, with the hospitality suite (room 2321) open most of the day for socializing, Vugraph, and snacks. We will be providing breakfast and lunch each day of play. Marie-France Benoit will be our lead hostess, with help from Jacob Morgan and Julie Arbit, who makes the best guacamole. If you're at the tournament and can volunteer to help with hospitality (pick up items at Costco or nearby stores or restaurants, preparing food) please let Jan or Marie-France know.

Breakfast: From 8-10 am. There will be the usual breakfast food: cereal, bagels, toast, salmon, fruit, juice, coffee and tea. For those who prefer Keurig coffee, that will be available. So long as the suite doesn't become too crowded, you are welcome to eat there. No masking requirement.

Lunch: On the first four days of each event we will be serving a buffet lunch in a hotel banquet room, usually the Slate and Cyan rooms at the front of the hotel; we will have signs in the Player Break Room and Hospitality Suite with daily location. The hotel will be supplying what they do best: salads and chips. We will be bringing in 2 or 3 hot dishes from a local restaurant each day. There should be enough room for you to eat in the hotel banquet room, but you are welcome to take food from there to an outside table or to your hotel room. Lunch will be served from about half an hour before the morning session is supposed to end until about half an hour after the afternoon session starts.

After the first 4 days of each event, lunch will be available in the hospitality suite at the break. There will be a main dish (sandwiches, chicken, main dish salads, pizza) as well as tuna salad, green salad, cheese, fruit, berries, cookies or other desserts. Water and soft drinks will be available in refrigerators. As with breakfast, you are welcome to eat in the hospitality suite unless it is too crowded.

Let us know if you have specific needs. Our hosts will do their very best to accommodate you.

Playing Rooms & Player's Break Room

We will have bottled water in the playing rooms and if there is a refrigerator in a playing room we'll stock it with soft drinks.

We will have bottled water in the Player's Break Room (1321), as well as soft drinks, Nespresso, some packaged snacks, and some fruit. Please keep your voices down in the Break Room where we are working.

Masks will be required in playing rooms only if your screenmate asks you to wear one. You do not have to put on a mask when you summon a director or ask for coffee, water or an escort outside to smoke.

This was a frustrating hand for Katz/Nickell in team practice... but it gave Levin a chance to shine. Greco/Levin bid the club slam and got lucky that Nickell didn't hold the CAQ. Had Katz found the underlead of the CA, they still might have been punished, however, Katz did the "normal" thing and led his CA and another club.

Levin won the second club with the King and had to play carefully. He pulled trump and continued running hearts, Katz discarding all his clubs... easy for him but poor Nick was squeezed! Nick followed to three rounds of hearts and on the fourth round, he was nailed. He needed to keep four diamonds and the CQ so he discarded a small spade.

This was the 8-card ending:

Levin cashed the SA and SK, dropping Nick's queen and claimed his twelve tricks. Well done, Bobby!

It's in the

Following the first five events of the World Bridge Tour in Japan, Iceland, and Australia, Hugh McGann and Brian Mace (left) shared the top spot with Tom Jacob & Brian Mace (right).

Breaking that “Down Under” dominance were Dennis Bilde & Martin Schaltz in shared third and Sabine Auken & Roy Welland in ninth place.

The first American partnership, Adam Kaplan & Finn Kolesnik were in 17th place. That changed when the Tour moved to Louisville/Kentucky in March at the recent ACBL NABC where three Tour events were decided, including the top ranked Vanderbilt teams.

Following that, with their victory in the South American Transnational Teams, Kevin Bathurst & John Hurd (below) took the pole position in the overalls, just ahead of their teammates Joe Grue & Brad Moss. They overtook the then frontrunners, Giovanni Donati & Giacomo Percario ,who dropped to third place.

Close behind are Sabine Auken & Roy Welland in fourth with Bobby Levin & Steve Weinstein and Eric Greco & Geoff Hampson sharing the fifth spot. It will be interesting to see if the latter four are destined to share a position since they are playing all Tour events as teammates. Pair events could matter!

The next event on the Tour calendar, the European Winter Championships in Alpe d’Huez, will clearly impact the standings. We will see which partnerships are best at handling the high altitude.

For those of you who are interested, Ela has agreed to come to the Hyatt to provide massages any day that we have 3 or more people who want her. So if you want a massage, please let me know a day or two in advance, including what your timing is, and I'll try to make things work.

For now, Ela said she could come on April 30th for anyone who wants a post-flight, pre-tournament massage. So if you want one, please let me know and tell me what time(s) would work for you.

I think Ela still charges $100 for an hour. She'll be setting her table up in my room (5117) and will have a key so she can get in and can let you in when it's your turn.

Any questions, let Jan know!

Meet the Players

Michael Kamil of the Robinson Team

Hand taken from the New York Times July 11, 2012

Michael Kamil won the ACBL Sidney H. Lazard Jr. Award for Sportsmanship in 2012. Michael was not only known for his sportsmanship but also for his kindness. He is one of the nicest people you will ever meet. He has a multitude of national championships.

When asked for a deal in 2012, he submitted this one that occurred during a knockout team in Albany in 1981. Kamil was South, partnering Marty Bergen.

One should pick up a 7-6-0-0 hand approximately every 17,857 deals. Kamil was wondering how to bid it when West passed, and Bergen opened 1S. East passed. Reasonably, Kamil responded 2D. Now things got weird. West made a takeout double; North and East passed. What would you do with the S hand? Kamil took a long time deciding, primarily because two diamonds doubled was not game and his side might have had a slam, though, presuming that West had four hearts, that was unlikely.

NORTH

WEST (D)		EAST
♠	A7	♠	QJ984

♣	AQ1083	♣	J96
♥	A109863
♦	AQJ10942

North and South were vulnerable. The bidding:

West	North	East	South
Pass	1♠	Pass	2♦
Dbl.	Pass	Pass	??

West led the spade ace.

The longer South thought, the more nervous North became, worried that his partner would assume that his pass said that he could tolerate diamonds.

Eventually Kamil passed, making North even more uncomfortable. West led the spade ace. South ruffed, cashed his diamond ace and drove out East's diamond king. East shifted to a club, but declarer ruffed, drew trumps, and ran the heart ten through West.

Then the players spent some time calculating the result, agreeing on 1,180.

At the score-up their teammates, John Lowenthal and Phillip Martin, said that they had defeated seven hearts by three tricks. Plus 1,180 and plus 300 gave them 16 IMPs on the board.

The match, though, ended in a tie. There had to be an eight-board playoff, which the Kamil team won narrowly. The only other person still in the building was a tournament director.

When the Kamil team went through the boards, the players realized that two diamonds doubled and vulnerable with four overtricks was only 980, not 1,180. They had lost the match in regulation!

The director did not feel that he could do anything at 2 a.m., the other team's players having left. No one knew where to find them.

After some discussion the team members agreed that if their opponents came to play the next afternoon, they would tell them about the error and concede the match.

The other team did not show and the Kamil team was relieved to lose its next match.

Since 2012, Michael has made some big changes in his life. The most meaningful is his marriage to Gabby. He and Gabby have become a successful partnership and a very happy couple with two adorable pups. They've lived in several places around the USA and always find something good to say about where they've been.

Three pairs tried the save on Board 1.

The biggest swing occurred in the Juster/Gu match where the Open table saved in 5D while the Closed table saved in 5H.

On the lead of a high spade, 5H goes down four while 5D goes down only two.

The best result for N/S occurred when Dwyer/Huang (N/S for Juster) bought the contract for 5DX.

Ron Smith (E) led the SK. Dwyer won his ace. He played the HT to the K and ruffed dummy's SJ. The DQ to West's ace followed and Dwyer won the return of the HQ in his hand. He played the CK to Smith's ace and Smith cashed his king of trump.

Dwyer claimed nine tricks for down two! 11 IMPs to Juster

The normal auction started with 1H by North followed by 2H Michaels by East. West jumped to 4S at their next turn and N/S had to decide whether to pass or save at even non-vulnerable.

In Bramley/Schireson, Olivia Schireson opened 1H; Bramley bid 2H Michaels; McAllister doubled; Woolsey jumped to 4S and Schireson showed her 5-card club suit. Bramley doubled with his AJ942 of clubs and McAllister disdained his 7-card diamond suit to bid 5H.

At both tables where 5H was the save of choice, the contract went 800.

Because Max Schireson and Debbie Rosenberg were allowed to declare 4S in the Open Room of Bramley/Schireson, the reward to Bramley was 9 IMPs as opposed to the 11 IMPs to Juster.

Board 6 looks like a routine game in hearts or NT for East/West.

Only one pair of the fourteen playing went down in game.

In the Open Room of Simson/Hamman, Joel Wooldridge made an inspired (tricky??) lead to defeat 4H.

3H was invitational with six hearts.

Wooldridge, North, led the DQ!! Hinze is still cold for ten tricks if he plays the DK from dummy but he never imagined that Joel was being so deceptive. He played low hoping for a favorable layout including a singleton or doubleton DA with South.

The DQ held and Wooldridge cashed the DA. Noting the signal from partner, he continued diamonds and gave Grainger his ruff. The HJ, still destined to score, became the setting trick!

Great deceptive lead, Joel!

At the other table in that match, Hamman led the DA after a strong club auction by his opponents. 13 IMPs to Simson

The only other somewhat odd result was in Rosenthal/Balleisen where Demuy, sitting North, doubled the NT game on the auction to the right:  He was on lead and chose the HJ.

Live by the sword,
die by the sword!

The biggest swing of the day came on Board 7 where Owen Lien and Aaron Jones played 3NT doubled and vulnerable down 6, taking the dive even before the opponents had bid their game.

Jones showed his spades and was being competitive when he bid 3D. When Berkowitz bid 3H, Lien the diamond fit as a valuable source of tricks and thought his HKJ would hold up.

Truly, Owen has great instincts and some days against some opponents, this could have worked... but not today and not against these opponents!

The auction:

Garner Jones Berkowitz Lien

W	N	E	S
			1♦
DBL	1♠	2♥	PASS
PASS	3♦	3♥	3NT
DBL	PASS	PASS	PASS

Garner led the H4, Owen winning his king. Owen played the S4 to the king in dummy and ran the DQ. The hand imploded!!

Garner grabbed his king, cashed the ace and king of clubs and played a club to Berkowitz. Berk cashed his clubs and shifted to back to hearts. The defense took five hearts, four clubs and a diamond for down SIX.

1700 was a big score for East/West. It was worth 18 IMPs to Robinson.

Most pairs played in hearts making three of four. There were two 12 IMP swings where one table bid game and made it while the other table stopped in a part score.

Sometimes you have one too many gadgets... While it did not matter all that much since his teammates did not bid the slam, Kovachev chose to use a very specific convention he had in his arsenal against Bathurst and Hurd of the Fleisher squad. Val thought it important to tell his partner not to lead diamonds so he doubled the slam!!The double was alerted as such.

Hurd took full advantage to assure Bathurst that all was well by redoubling. The little known score of 1820 created a 16 IMP swing for Fleisher! Two other tables produced 11 IMP swings where one table in each match stopped in game while the other bid the slam!
