Board 24 shows the disparity of results that can occur after a Multi 2D opening. At both tables, West opened 2D showing a major suit weak two. North doubled showing 13-15 balanced or a very strong hand (18+). The East players took very different views.

Steve Beatty took a dim view of his hand, apparently assuming that Fred Stewart's 2D bid was based on a heart suit. Steve bid 2S (pass or correct) planning to pass Stewart's anticipated 3H response. Brad Moss bid 3H with the South hand and North, Joe Grue, cuebid 3S. Brad bought the contract in 4H.

The defense started with two rounds of spades. Brad trumped the second spade and advanced the DJ. Stewart covered and Beatty won his ace. Beatty exited with a diamond. Brad won the DT, played a heart to the ace and a heart back to Beatty's king. A diamond was returned. Moss trumped the diamond, drew the trump and took the rest of the tricks when clubs split 2-2.

It was not a great game, but when everything split, 18 HCP and a seven card trump fit produced the necessary ten tricks for +420.

Bart Bramley took a more aggressive stance when he bid 3H (pass or correct). If Kit Woolsey's suit was spades, E/W had a ten or eleven card fit and Bart was willing to play at the four-level.

Woolsey corrected to 3S and Bramley bid the spade game.

Will Watson led a high club. Fearing that cashing a second club would set up a diamond discard if declarer held three clubs to the ten, Will switched to a diamond. Woolsey won the queen of diamonds, drew trump and exited with a club. Watson won the club, cashed the HA and exited with a heart. Woolsey cashed the DA and played a diamond to Watson's king. Will was forced to yield a ruff-and-sluff. 4S was defeated one trick.

Some Suggestions For Dining at Home Between Sessions! Pandemic Pleasures...

BEEF GOULASH

Servings: 6-8

1 - 4 pound (1.8 kg) boneless beef chuck-eye roast, trimmed of excess fat and cut into 1 1/2-inch cubes

1 teaspoon (5 ml) salt

1 (12-ounce) (330 ml) jar roasted red peppers, drained and rinsed

1/3 cup (36 grams) sweet paprika

3 tablespoons (45 ml) tomato paste

3 tablespoons (45 ml) olive oil

4 large yellow onions, diced

1 tablespoon (15 ml) balsamic vinegar

1 teaspoon (5 ml) caraway seeds

4 large carrots, peeled and cut into 1-inch-thick rounds

3 celery ribs, sliced into 1-inch pieces

1 bay leaf

1/2 cup (120 ml) beef stock

Finishing:

Salt and white pepper

Zest of one lemon

1/4 cup (15 grams) Italian parsley, finely chopped

1/3 (80 ml) cup sour cream

Directions:

Preheat oven to 325 degrees F.

Sprinkle beef with salt and let sit for 15 minutes.

Place roasted peppers, paprika and tomato paste in food processor and blend until smooth, scraping down sides a few times to incorporate.

Heat a large Dutch oven to medium-high and add the oil, onions and 1 teaspoon salt. Cook until the onions are golden, about 5 - 8 minutes. Add the blended pepper paste and cook for a couple of minutes.

Add the balsamic vinegar, caraway seeds, beef, carrots, celery, bay leaf and stock. Using a rubber spatula, scrape down the sides of the pot.

Cover the pot with foil and the lid, and transfer to the oven.

Cook until the meat is almost tender, about 2 to 2½ hours, stirring a couple of times during the cooking. Feel free to add a little more stock if it looks like the meat is drying out.

When the meat is tender, remove the pan from the oven and skim off any excess oil and discard the bay leaf. Season with salt and white pepper to taste, stir and fold in the lemon zest, parsley and sour cream and serve with the spätzle, egg noodles or boiled potatoes.

HOMEMADE SPÄTZLE

2-1/2 cups (300 grams) All Purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon (2 ml) salt
Pinch white pepper
1/4 teaspoon (1 ml) nutmeg
1 cup (240 ml) sour cream
4 large eggs
3 egg yolks
3 tablespoons (45 ml) light olive oil
4 tablespoons (60 ml) unsalted butter
1/4 cup (15 grams) Italian parsley, finely chopped

Directions:

In a large bowl, combine the flour, salt, pepper, and nutmeg. In another mixing bowl, whisk the eggs, egg yolks and sour cream together. Make a well in the center of the dry ingredients and pour in the egg/sour cream mixture. Gradually draw in the flour from the sides and combine well; the dough should be smooth and thick. Let the dough rest for at least 1 hour or overnight.

Bring 4 quarts of water and 1 tablespoon of salt to a boil in Dutch oven, then reduce to a simmer.

Hold a Spätzle maker or large holed colander over the simmering water and push the dough through the holes. Try not to overcrowd the pan. Boil for 3 minutes, the spätzle should be floating on the surface, stirring gently to prevent sticking. Using a slotted spoon, transfer spätzle immediately with slotted spoon to bowl of ice water. Make 2 more batches in same manner. When spätzle is cool to touch, drain well and toss with 3 tablespoons olive oil.

In a large frying pan over high heat, add the butter. When it starts to bubble, add the spätzle and cook, without moving pan, until the undersides are brown, about 2 minutes. Toss and cook for another minute or two. Season to taste with salt and white pepper. Sprinkle with parsley and serve.

EGGPLANT PARMESAN

Servings: 6

3 pounds (1.36 kg) eggplant, unpeeled, halved lengthwise, and sliced 1/4 to 1/3 inch thick
3/4 cup (180 ml) good olive oil
3 tablespoons (7.2 grams) minced fresh thyme
Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
3 cups (720 ml) marinara sauce, (homemade or Rao's)
18 slices fresh mozzarella
12 oz. (350 grams) grated fontina
1 (5.2) oz. (150 grams) pkg. Boursin cheese
3/4 cup (68 grams) grated Parmigiano-Reggiano cheese
2 cups (40 grams) fresh basil leaves, torn
6 slices white sandwich bread, cubed 1/2 inch
6 tablespoons (45 ml) butter
1 spring fresh thyme
1 garlic clove, peeled and bashed

For serving:

2 cups (480 ml) marina sauce
1/2 cup (120 ml) good quality pesto (optional)

Directions:

Pre-heat oven 400 degrees F.

Lay the eggplant in one layer on three sheet pans and brush each side with olive oil. Season with salt and pepper. Bake for 15 minutes. Remove trays from oven. Turn the slices over and rotate the trays 180 degrees and place back in the oven and bake for another 10 minutes or until tender.

In a 10 x 14 x 2-inch baking dish, spoon one cup of the sauce and spread evenly on the bottom. Place a third of the eggplant on top in one layer. Scatter a third of the basil, a third of all the cheeses on top. Repeat twice, starting with the marinara sauce and ending with the parmesan, making sure each layer is evenly distributed.

Place cubed bread in a bowl.

Over low heat, melt the butter in a small saucepan with fresh thyme and garlic, and let it cook for a few minutes. Fish out the thyme and discard. Pour the melted butter mixture over the bread cubes and toss evenly to coat. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

Spread the seasoned bread mixture evenly over the eggplant. Place on a baking tray and bake for 20 - 30 minutes. Let rest 10 minutes to help cheese settle before serving.

To serve, add 1/2 cup warmed marinara sauce to a plate, top with slice eggplant Parmesan and drizzle the pesto around the sides.

Meet the Players

Allan Falk is a 1972 graduate of Yale Law School, who was admitted to the State Bar of Michigan the same year and has been practicing law since that time. Falk previously graduated from Michigan State University, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and other honorary societies, was named a Woodrow Wilson fellow, and participated in Delta Phi Epsilon foreign service honorary. He has also attended courses at Leningrad (now St. Petersburg) State University and is an honors graduate of the U.S. Army Air Defense School.

In 1977, Falk was the first lawyer in the country after the Aboud decision to formally challenge the use of mandatory bar dues by a unified bar organization. His pleadings and briefs were later borrowed by challengers, and used successfully, in New Mexico, Montana, the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands, California, and Wisconsin. The motivation for this initial objection to mandatory State Bar of Michigan dues was Falk's successful lobbying, as a member of Common Cause of Michigan, for open meetings and other political reform legislation. The state Bar opposed these reforms and used his dues in its attempt to thwart him.

Falk, however, believes that some activities of the State Bar are worthwhile, although most could be better accomplished by a voluntary organization. He has served for more than six years on the Professional and Judicial Ethics Committee and the appellate Court Administration Committee of the State Bar of Michigan. He is also a North American bridge champion, author of three books on the subject, and a member of the International Bridge Press Association.

Allan is married to bridge player, Jackie DeRouin.

Allan has served as a volunteer to the ACBL in all sorts of advisory positions to the Ethical Oversight Committee and the Online Ethical Oversight Committee. He is always willing to assist in any way he can.

In this event, Allan is playing as a member of the Simson squad!

If you don't want to play in the USBF Championships that choose teams to represent the USA in the World Bridge Federation Championships, but do want to aid our events, a Supporting Membership can be the perfect way for you to be involved. As a Supporting Member, you are eligible to:

1. Enter the fantasy brackets, run on Bridge Winners, for the USBF trials choosing our Open and Senior teams for the World Championships. The highest-ranking Supporting Member in the fantasy brackets for each of these two events will win the prize of your choice - either an online match against the USBC winners or dinner with them at the next NABC.
2. Receive daily emails during the USBF Championships. These will summarize the previous day's results and provide vugraph information and links to daily bulletins containing pictures and commentary on individual hands.
3. Upon advanced request, make arrangements for you to kibitz a USBF member of your choice for a session once each year – either at an NABC or the USBF Championships.
4. Upon advanced request, we will arrange for you to be one of the vugraph commentators for one session of the team trials.

A Supporting Membership is $25 for one year ($75 for 3 years) and the ACBL now offers you the chance to become an USBF Supporting Member when you renew your ACBL membership. If you don't want to wait that long, you can join by choosing the red Donate Now button on the USBF website. The USBF is an all-volunteer organization. Our meetings are by conference call and at NABCS. Board members and the organization's officers are not compensated for meetings, travel, or hotel expenses.

We hope you will join us.

On Board 31 in the 12th round, 30 out of 32 pairs played in 4S, most taking eleven tricks. Michael Rosenberg and Ralph Katz found the lead of the CQ to hold declarer to ten tricks.

At all but three tables, E/W were silent throughout the auction. Kerri Sanborn opened a weak 2H with the West hand and when North jumped to 4S, the auction ended. At two tables the E/W pairs played specialized destructive 2H bids. The results were not pretty.

In the Compton/Donner match, Radu Nistor opened 2H showing five hearts and a four-card or longer minor with 5-10 HCP. Chris Compton overcalled 4S with the North hand.

Disdaining “the law” (of total tricks), Iulian Rotaru bid 5H. Compton doubled with his three aces.

The defense was accurate. Compton cashed the DA and the SA. He led a second spade for Andy Goodman to ruff. Andy cashed the CA and the DK on which Compton discarded his remaining club. Goodman led a club for Compton to ruff and the trump ace produced the defenders’ seventh trick. N/S +1100

In the Lo/Rasmussen match, Maxim Silin opened 2H showing five hearts of any quality and 3-9 HCP.

Alex Kolesnik jumped to 4S with the North hand and Carrie Liu tried 5H.

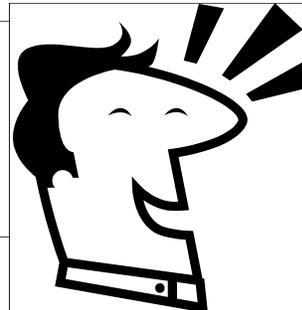

Ai-Tai Lo doubled and, again, the defense was accurate. Kolesnik started with the DA and switched to a club. Ai-Tai won the CA and returned a spade.

Alex won the SA and gave Ai-Tai his spade ruff. Lo cashed the DK on which Kolesnik discarded his club. Lo led a club for Kolesnik to trump. Kolesnik led another spade, trumped by South and over-ruffed by declarer. The trump ace was cashed... again for +1100

The fifth pair...

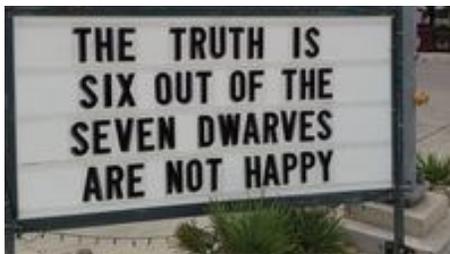

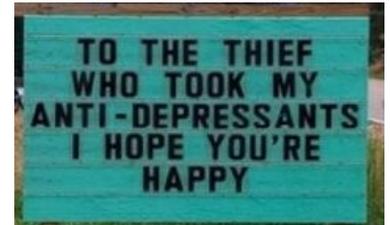

In the Fleisher /Lall match, Marty Fleisher found the killing lead of the diamond queen.

Bob Hamman covered with the king and Chip Martel won the ace and returned a diamond to Marty. Fleisher cashed the third diamond and lead a spade to Martel, who took two more diamond tricks to defeat 3NT by two tricks.

Aker led the SJ, ruffed in dummy. Grue led a trump from dummy and the hand was an easy make when Simson followed with the queen.

Ifty Baqai and Anam Tebha each chose to open an out-of-range 2NT with the 19 HCP balanced South hand. At both tables, North showed both minors with short spades. Both declarers made 6D without finessing for the queen of trump.

Limey Jack...

Hallo Yanks:

Limey Jack almost ran the table, while Howie Dung had the most confusing and daft affront to Robert Frost.

Whilst the top 5 get to rest and the bottom 6 catch the 8:10 from Charing Cross, the middle quintet from each bracket gird for battle. Six squads of the ten will move ahead with Levine seeming to be the favourite. Meanwhile, Joel herself was surprised and had to cancel her British Folklore class on the morrow.

Limey Jack would like to have bagsy (Ed note: shotgun) for the match between Hill and Lewis. They had virtually identical scores, but Lewis will need to beat Hill to survive.

There will be a couple of chock-a-block days but Limey Jack will help you take it to the punter. Stay far away from the Dung fellow as he would be chuffed to find his piehole with his fork. Donner fared well so far but will need to play like dog's bollocks to move on. Joel has a pair constantly faff-faffing (Ed note: Taking too much time) and when they meet Lall the Earth might fall into the Sun. Watch for slow play penalties against Weichsel, Beatty and Stewart.

The survivors are Levine, Donn, Donner, Hill, Lewis, and Liu.

Cheers

Round Robin Two,
Four teams will fall.
Six will be left
To play in the Lall!

Two of the teams
Sure to go on...
One would be Lewis.
The other is Donn.

They'll join team Joel,
Team Levine, too,
To play in two weeks
'Gainst Lall and 'gainst Liu!

Good bye team Dawson;
Good bye team Hill;
Practice online
And hone up your skill.

Donner and Compton,
Get the heave ho.
I am quite sorry
To see you all go!

Stay safe and stay healthy
That is your task.
Please get a shot.
And please wear a mask.

Till the 26th...
I remain Howie Doing!
